Dedicated to the history of ice hockey, the Hockey Hall Of Fame (HHOF) holds exhibits about players, teams, National Hockey League (NHL) records, memorabilia and NHL trophies, including the Stanley Cup. Founded in Kingston, Ontario, the Hockey Hall of Fame was established in 1943 under the leadership of James T. Sutherland. The first class of honored members was inducted in 1945, before the Hall of Fame had a permanent location. It moved to Toronto in 1958 after the NHL withdrew its support for the International Hockey Hall of Fame in Kingston, Ontario, due to funding issues. Its first permanent building opened at Exhibition Place in 1961. The hall was relocated in 1993, and is now in downtown Toronto, inside Brookfield Place, and a historic Bank of Montreal building. The Hockey Hall of Fame has hosted International Ice Hockey Federation (IIHF) exhibits and the IIHF Hall of Fame since 1998.

The museum was founded in 1900 as the Art Museum of Toronto by a group of private citizens and members of the Toronto Society of Arts. The institution's founders included George A. Cox, Lady Eaton, Sir Joseph W. Flavelle, J. W. L. Forster, E. F. B. Johnston, Sir William Mackenzie, Hart A. Massey, Professor James Mavor, F. Nicholls, Sir Edmund Osler, Sir Henry M. Pellatt, George Agnew Reid, Byron Edmund Walker, Mrs. H. D. Warren, E.R. Wood, and Frank P. Wood. Located on Dundas Street West in the Grange Park neighborhood of downtown Toronto, the museum complex takes up 45,000 square meters (480,000 sq ft) of physical space, making it one of the largest art museums in North America and the second-largest art museum in Toronto, after the Royal Ontario Museum. More ↗ <https://ago.ca/>

IMPORTANT POLICIES: PLEASE READ! YOUR REGISTRATION FOR THE MEETING SIGNIFIES YOUR AGREEMENT WITH THESE POLICIES.

REGISTRATION, CHANGES, CANCELLATIONS, AND REFUNDS

All registrations for the meeting and optional social events must be completed through The Hip Society and paid in full by September 1, 2025. Please note that some events may have limited availability and/or age restrictions.

Changes, cancellations, and requests for full refunds may be accepted (subject to availability) and honored if received on or before September 1, 2025. After this date, no refunds will be issued, and no new registrations will be processed. This policy is strictly enforced and non-negotiable.

Registration fees for social events are designed to offset the direct costs to the Society. Fees are calculated to ensure a revenue-neutral budget for each event.

Attendees are individually responsible for all expenses related to their meeting participation and travel, including airfare, accommodations, ground transportation, and other related costs. In the event of meeting cancellation or relocation, The Hip Society assumes no financial liability for any expenses, penalties, or fees incurred in changing or canceling travel and lodging arrangements. This policy is also non-negotiable.

EMERGENCY COMMUNICATION

In the event of an emergency, The Hip Society staff will communicate via email using the email addresses we have on file for our members and their administrative staff. Please ensure you have access to your email while traveling.

PHOTOGRAPHY

Photographs of The Hip Society's Summer Meeting may be taken throughout the program. By registering for and attending the events scheduled within the framework of the meeting, The Hip Society's members and their guests agree that their photograph may be used in The Hip Society's member communications, promotional materials, and other professional communications.

Photographs of members and/or their guests taken by staff at the time of the meeting may appear on official Hip Society social media platforms.
